Reflective Journal Submission Instructions

In this assignment, you will have the opportunity to ensure that you have thoroughly addressed all required reflections and prompts within your journal. This submission allows you to document your learning journey, key insights, and personal growth throughout the module.

- As part of this module, you are required to complete and submit your reflective journal.
    - Your reflection should be uploaded as a PDF file using the following naming convention:
        - Name_Surname_M8_Reflection_Journal
        - Example: Jamie_Jones_M8_Reflection_Journal
    - Upload your journal to the Module 8 folder in GitHub.
- This submission is an important part of your learning and contributes to your overall progress in the course. This assessment makes up 40 % of your total score for the course.

You are encouraged to explore and utilize GenAI tools (e.g., Grok, ChatGPT). These tools can help you gain new perspectives, structure your thoughts, and refine your ideas. If you use any external sources, including AI-generated content, please ensure proper citation.

Rubric

Criteria	1 (Limited)	2 (Basic)	3 (Proficient)	4 (Advanced)	5 (Exceptional)
Conceptual Understanding	Demonstrates minimal understanding of the concepts. Responses are vague or incorrect.	Demonstrates a basic understanding of some concepts, but explanations may be incomplete or contain inaccuracies.	Demonstrates a solid understanding of most key concepts, with mostly accurate and relevant explanations.	Demonstrates a strong grasp of concepts, providing clear, accurate, and insightful explanations.	Demonstrates exceptional conceptual clarity with nuanced, precise, and in-depth explanations across all areas.
Application to Real-world or Theoretical Contexts	Rarely connects concepts to examples or real-world scenarios.	Makes superficial or unclear connections between concepts and their applications.	Applies concepts to relevant scenarios with reasonable clarity and some insight.	Applies concepts effectively and insightfully to appropriate theoretical or practical contexts.	Applies concepts with originality and depth, showing an excellent grasp of their relevance to broader contexts.
Use of Examples or Reasoning	Provides little to no evidence, examples, or reasoning to support ideas.	Provides generalised or limited examples and reasoning, with weak justification.	Supports ideas with appropriate examples or logical reasoning.	Provides strong, relevant examples and well-structured reasoning throughout.	Consistently uses detailed examples and compelling reasoning to support and deepen understanding.
Structure and Clarity of Communication	Writing is disorganised, unclear, or difficult to follow.	Writing is somewhat organised but lacks clarity or flow.	Writing is generally clear, with logical structure and coherence.	Writing is well-organised and communicates ideas effectively and fluently.	Writing is highly polished, articulate, and structured with outstanding clarity and flow.
Critical Engagement with Material	Displays little or no critical thinking or questioning of ideas.	Shows some basic engagement, but lacks depth in analysis.	Engages with material thoughtfully, offering some analysis or reflection.	Demonstrates strong critical thinking, including questioning assumptions and exploring implications.	Demonstrates exceptional critical analysis and reflection, drawing original connections and insights.
